Chacon
vs
Baca

In the Supreme Court for New Mexico September 1848

The appellee Baca claims that the verdict of the Jury is sustained by the whole testimony in this case —

1st That Joint boundaries cannot prevail over the measurements when there is any difference

Contradiction

2 That the testimony shows that there was an arbitration and settlement to which Chacon agreed and accepted thereby debarred

3 That the testimony shows that when Baca built his house he did not go outside or trespass upon the lands of Chacon

4 That the conveyances to Chacon show that none of the previous proprietors of the land ever claimed more than to the house of Baca

5. That the estrada and calida are given by the testimony to be a traversable footpath.

6 That the measurements of these lands as named by the previous proprietors show that Chacon has not all the lands he can claim by virtue of the Junction Agreement.
